AFANDY Richard

Global Business Systems Management, Year 2

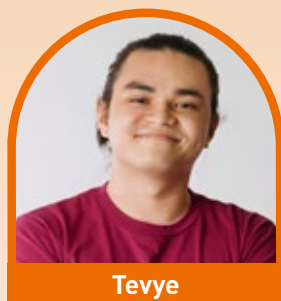

Joining the CityU Musical might be the most enjoyable challenging experience during my university life. It is indeed a pleasure to meet such a good family with incredible talents and diversity. Although the schedule was packed, I'm grateful to experience this once-in-a-lifetime experience through the show!

Cheers to the memories we made! Cheers to the sweat and excitement! Cheers to the musical family! Cheers to the Fiddler on the Roof!

ALLMAN-BROWN Harry Vincent Sadang

Law, Year 4

Tevye always tries his best for his family, despite how his life remains one of poverty. Yet, in spite of all this, he makes sure to understand and shows his love and care to his loved ones. He is the quintessential father, one who is indeed not perfect, but one who is brave enough to admit his vulnerability. In other words, he is the best father one can ask for.

Tevye

CHAN Kin Cheung, Michael

Finance, Year 4

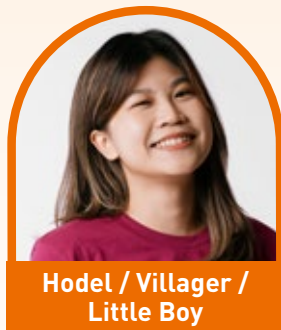

Truly thankful to end my university life on a high note with these lovely and amazing cast members. With them, now I truly have everything. Let's get it, Fiddlers!

CHAN Tsoi Yi, Ida

Social Work, Year 3

Much love to the production team and everyone who has always been here for me. Without you, I won't be the girl who shines on stage tonight.

Be a brave girl like Hodel. Follow your heart and do what you want!

CHING Lok Chee, Sarah

English, Year 2

I'm very glad to have the chance in this year's musical. We are a fun and lovely team. Fruma-Sarah is a challenging role as she's a haunting ghost which I have never played ghosts before. The way she expresses herself: her mournful cries are desperate and painful, which is very intense and is uneasy to handle. But it is great fun! I hope you enjoy the show!

CHOI Ka Lok, Bee

Systems Engineering and Management, Year 4

I have no such decent musical performance experience before. I am grateful to have such extraordinary opportunity to be part of the CityU Musical and make many nice and good friends. The techniques acquired would amply enrich my versatile path. It is a funny and more than a worthy event that would definitely be the most meaningful memory of my final year at CityU.

GUO Yipeng, Gloria

Creative Media, Year 3

This is my first attempt to participate in a musical performance, which is a new experience from dance to performance. When the sense of life is opened by art, it breaks through the limitations of life itself. Musicals have made me more enthusiastic about life, and I enjoy it!

HO Wing Fung, Michael

Global Research Enrichment and Technopreneurship, Year 2

I have never had any experience with musicals before Fiddler on the Roof. Involving in the musical has been a growing experience that showcases another aspect of me I never know. I have always admired those who can dance, sing and act, but I am now part of the talented cast and getting ready to bring the audience a joyful entertainment today!

Our cast is not a bunch of novices but a group of youthful enthusiasts with passion, of which I am so honored to be one of them!

KWAK Dahye

Digital TV and Broadcasting, Year 4

I am blessed to be part of this meaningful show with amazingly talented cast members and a supportive production team.

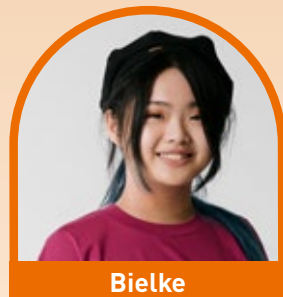

Playing Golde has given me a different perspective on facing the new world, which we consider ordinary these days. She has a sharp tongue and wit, but she realizes what love is and that love has always been there.

It's a new world, love.

LAI Ka Man, Carmen

Creative Media, Year 1

Being a part of Tevye's family is certainly not easy! A house with five daughters is undoubtedly chaotic, with people running around all day, carrying this and carrying that. It has been a wonderful experience rehearsing this show. I hope you enjoy our performance as much as we do and get brainwashed by the memorable songs!

LAM Chung Yan, Fion

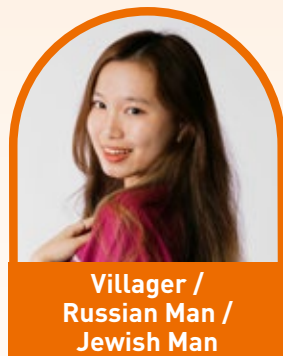

Creative Media, Alumna

Fiddler on the Roof, a play about breaking traditions, and being expelled from one's hometown. It may seem to be a tragedy, but it's also about embracing new ideas, surviving in upsetting situations, and ringing in the new era. You must break muscle down to build it back and be stronger. May we see the sunrise after dawn, the rainbow after the rain.

LIMBU Bhumika, Mika

English, Year 3

Being part of the musical is such an extraordinary experience for me. I've learnt so much from the whole cast and crew. Great learning experience and I must say, beautiful memories are made.

LIU Chih Yu, Yvonne

Media and Communication, Year 2

I can't be more grateful to be part of the CityU Musical and to meet so many incredibly talented people. I had such a wonderful time singing and dancing with them in the past few months! Enjoy the show!

LIU Shuyi

Computer Science, Year 2

It is my pleasure to be part of the CityU Musical! As musicals lover, I have always dreamed about participating, and this time I hold the chance in my hand. I am grateful to meet and work with every excellent team member I met here. Enjoy the show of our team!

MA Cheuk Chun Charlotte

New Media, Alumna

I always love watching musicals since I was a child. Switching my role from an audience to a performer is a brand new experience for me. I am really grateful to have this amazing team in this journey.

Creative Media, Year 2

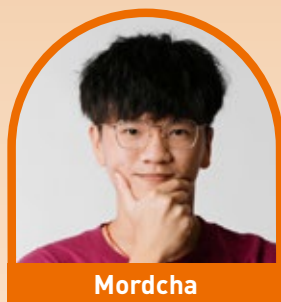

So grateful to meet you guys in this production.

Tzeitel wants to tell everyone no matter who you are, you are entitled to happiness. Be courageous, be brave and do what you want to do. Hope all of us can find our own happiness.

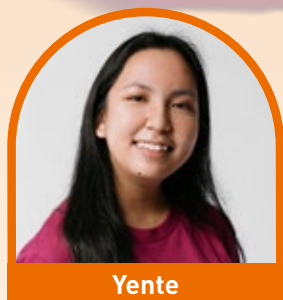

NG Shi Yiu, Peter

Global Business Systems Management, Year 2

I'm taking part in a musical production for the first time, and I'm grateful to have such a great team! In these few months, I've learnt a lot and made many new friends. I'll never forget my trip here, and it is such an excellent decision to join the musical.

Mordcha

PUA Krystelle Jasmin Espiritu

Veterinary Medicine, Year 1

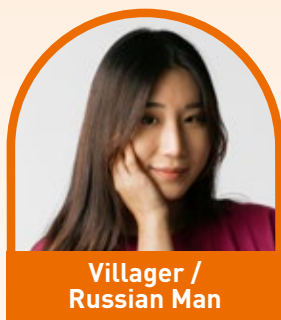

Musical theatre has always been an art that mesmerised me. Watching so many different musicals, and seeing all these wonderful actors bring life to characters on a script, I have never imagined I'd be gifted with that experience.

The musical is a tradition that'll continue for years to come. Right? Of course, right.

SHIM Yoonsue, Raina

Biomedical Engineering, Year 4

I am honored to be a part of this musical, Fiddler on the Roof which always received positive energy and joy rehearsing with this family. Through these amazing people, I've learned so much, and I will never forget this precious memory.

WANG Chenqi, Alicia

Finance, Year 4

It is unimaginable and incredible to perform on the stage of the CityU Musical in my final year. Being part of this Broadway classic and working with this inspiring team is like a dream come true. The dancing, singing and acting skills I learnt from the professionals, as well as the friendship I cherish are the best presents throughout the journey.

I hope you all enjoy the show!

WIJAYA Ignatius Alvin

Computing Mathematics, Alumna

Let us cherish and embrace every moment in life. Our lives, now and later, would be always something that we shall think about. May this moment be a remarkable memory for you and me!

WONG Cheuk Ying Christie

Psychology, Year 3

It is my first time participating in a musical production, and I have learnt lots from it! You might think playing as a villager sounds unimportant, but I prove you not! It is the fellow bagel seller at the back who helps to form the atmosphere of a village!

Musical is a collective art involving different people. Everyone is like small gears that participates and works together to make the play go smoothly!

A big shoutout to all the casts and the production team! We are all poggers!

Villager

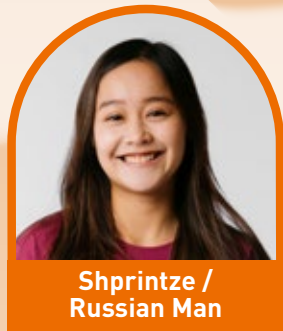

Avram

WONG Kin Yu, Nathan

Social Work, Year 3

It is so much pleasure to be one of the cast here. Earlier this year, I lost the chance to come on stage for another show because of the pandemic. Therefore, I am so glad and never thought that I could get back a performance opportunity in Fiddler on the Roof. Many thanks to our production team and all the cast. Please enjoy the show!
