

Prof. Kwok Cho TANG

Former Coordinator Health Promotion,
World Health Organization

KC joined the World Health Organization in Geneva in Mar 2002 as a Senior Professional Officer at the Health Promotion Unit and retired from the Organization in August 2016, as Coordinator Health Promotion. Prior to his appointments with WHO, he taught at the Department of Public Health and Community Medicine at the University of Sydney from Jan 1997 to Feb 2002 and worked with the Southern Sydney Area Health Service between 1990 and 1996. KC also worked in community services in Sydney and in Hong Kong for some 10 years. KC completed his Ph D at the University of Sydney, Grad Dip in Public Sector Management (Health) at the University of Technology, Sydney and MA in Social Administration at the University of York in England. He completed his Diploma in Social Work at the Hong Kong Baptist College. As a part-time academic, KC has published more than 65 peer-reviewed articles and technical reports; and, has a citation of some 10,000 and an h-index of 21 as of 2017.