

Prof. Ting GONG

Prof. Gong earned her BA and MA from Fudan University, China, and MA and PhD in political science from the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs of Syracuse University, USA. Her main research areas include corruption studies, public governance, and political institutions. She is the author of the first English book-length study of China's corruption. Her most recent book, Corruption Prevention and Good Governance in Hong Kong, co-authored with Professor Ian Scott, is published by Routledge (UK) and has been translated into Chinese. She has published over a hundred articles in international and Chinese journals of political science or public administration. She serves on the editorial boards of top academic journals such as Governance, Public Management Review, The China Quarterly, and Policy and Politics. She has been invited to serve as academic advisor or external reviewer by many universities in China. She has received prestigious grants from Research Grants Council of Hong Kong (RGC), Independent Commission Against Corruption of Hong Kong (ICAC) and other institutions.