

Prof. YIP Ngai Ming

Yip started his academic career after working as a registered social worker for ten years. Graduating from the University of York in the UK, he joined City University in 1994. After retired from the post of professor in housing and urban studies of CityU in 2023, he is now adjunct professor in the Department of Public and International Affairs in CityU. He research on housing policy, housing management and urban policy. He has been programme leader of the MA in Housing Studies and MA in Urban Management as well as major leader of the Public Policy and Politics Programme. He is a member of the Chartered Institute of Housing and served as the Chairman of the Asian Pacific Branch in 2013 and 2014. He was a member of the Task Force on Tenancy Control of Subdivided Units set up by the Transport and Housing Bureau of the Hong Kong Government and member of the Commercial Properties Committee and Subsidised Housing Committee of the Hong Kong Housing Authority during 2014-2023.

Research Interests

Urban sociology; urban spatial analysis; housing policy