

Flow Chart for Accepting Offers of Master's Programmes

1. Read all "Notes for Applicants"
2. Create an application account, upload supporting documents, submit the application for a programme and pay the application fee via the system

Application Status
Under Review / Interview (if applicable)

Firm Offer

Accept the offer and settle the acceptance fee before deadline

Decline

- Apply for student visa immediately after acceptance of an offer*
- Prepare to study in Hong Kong*
- Arrange submission of the required documents by the stipulated deadline for qualification checking. Please read the details

Conditional Offer

Accept the offer and settle the acceptance fee before deadline

Decline

- Apply for student visa immediately after acceptance of an offer [regardless of whether you have already met the condition(s)]*
- Prepare to study in Hong Kong*
- Submit all of the document(s) to fulfill the condition(s) of the offer before the deadline
- Arrange submission of the required documents by the stipulated deadline for qualification checking. Please read the details

Condition(s) not met

Submit official proof of condition "not met" and request for refund of acceptance fee by the specified deadline

Receive an email notification to retrieve enrolment or relevant information via the application account starting from mid-July

Bring the original certificates of qualifications (e.g. degree award certificate or other documents as requested by the University) to complete Qualification Checking and Enrolment in person in August