Part II Course Details

Abstract

This course provides an overview of English-language literature. Each lecture introduces students to important stages in the development of English literature, considering the development of the language, historical context, and key literary trends. It begins by examining English literature's roots in Anglo-Saxon poetry and concludes with a consideration of the current global role of the English-language literature. At each stage, students will acquire knowledge of the central approaches and methodologies to the study of English literature and develop skills to apply them to selected literary texts.

Assessment Rubrics (AR)

Assessment Task

1. Participation

Criterion

Constructive engagement

Excellent (A+, A, A-)

Very constructive and active engagement in class activities.

Good (B+, B, B-)

Constructive and active engagement in most class activities.

Fair (C+, C, C-)

Engagement and contributions are limited qualitatively, quantitatively or both.

4 GE2133: The Life and Times of English Literature

Marginal (D)

Little engagement in class activities; contributions in class are limited in number or not constructive.

Failure (F)

Minimal engagement in class activities; contributions in class are rare or not constructive.

Assessment Task

2. Learning portfolio

Criterion

Task completion

Excellent (A+, A, A-)

Assigned tasks are completed to a high standard and presented in the portfolio.

Good (B+, B, B-)

Assigned tasks are completed to a good standard and presented in the portfolio.

Fair (C+, C, C-)

Assigned tasks are presented in the portfolio with some omissions or significant inaccuracy.

Marginal (D)

Many tasks are missing from the portfolio and/or there is a high degree of inaccuracy.

Failure (F)

Few or none of the tasks are completed and/or those which are presented in the portfolio are done to a low standard.

Assessment Task

2. Learning portfolio

Criterion

Reflection

Excellent (A+, A, A-)

The reflective component of the portfolio shows a very high degree of awareness of the relationship between the task and the course themes.

Good (B+, B, B-)

The reflective component of the portfolio shows a good degree of awareness of the relationship between the task and the course themes.

Fair (C+, C, C-)

The reflective component of the portfolio shows a limited but satisfactory awareness of the relationship between the task and the course themes.

Marginal (D)

The reflective component of the portfolio shows a significantly limited awareness of the relationship between the task and the course themes.

Failure (F)

The reflective component of the portfolio is not completed, or shows little or no awareness of the relationship between the task and the course themes.

Assessment Task

2. Learning portfolio

Criterion

Language use

Excellent (A+, A, A-)

The lexicogrammar is extremely accurate and idiomatic.

Good (B+, B, B-)

The lexicogrammar is generally accurate and idiomatic; minor errors do not negatively affect comprehension.

Fair (C+, C, C-)

The lexicogrammar is generally accurate and idiomatic; relatively few errors have a minor effect on comprehension.

Marginal (D)

Frequent inaccurate and/or unidiomatic features in the lexicogrammar disrupt comprehensibility.

Failure (F)

Lexicogrammatical errors are frequent and seriously disrupt comprehension.

Assessment Task

3. Research report

Criterion

Application of concepts and methods

Excellent (A+, A, A-)

The report demonstrates a strong understanding of concepts or methods from English studies and a strong ability to apply them in order to inform a problem or question.

Good (B+, B, B-)

The report demonstrates a good understanding of concepts or methods from English studies and a good ability to apply them in order to inform a problem or question.

Fair (C+, C, C-)

The report demonstrates a limited understanding of concepts or methods from English studies and/or the ability to apply them.

Marginal (D)

The report demonstrates a very weak understanding of concepts or methods from English studies and/or the ability to apply them.

Failure (F)

The report is not completed, or it demonstrates little or no understanding/application of the concepts or methods used.

Assessment Task

3. Research report

Criterion

Language use

Excellent (A+, A, A-)

The report's lexicogrammar is extremely accurate and idiomatic.

Good (B+, B, B-)

The report 's generally accurate and idiomatic; minor errors do not negatively affect comprehension.

Fair (C+, C, C-)

The report's lexicogrammar is generally accurate and idiomatic; relatively few errors have a minor effect on comprehension.

Marginal (D)

Frequent inaccurate and/or unidiomatic features in the report's lexicogrammar disrupt comprehensibility.

Failure (F)

Lexicogrammatical errors are frequent and seriously disrupt comprehension.

Assessment Task

4. In-class final test

Criterion

Content knowledge

Excellent (A+, A, A-)

Answers demonstrate a very strong understanding of the course content.

Good (B+, B, B-)

Answers demonstrate a good understanding of the course content.

Fair (C+, C, C-)

Answers demonstrate a limited but satisfactory understanding of the course content.

Marginal (D)

Answers demonstrate a weak understanding of the course content.

Failure (F)

One or more quizzes not taken, and/or answers demonstrate a very weak understanding of the course content.
