Part II Course Details

Abstract

Interpersonal relationship and positive self-development are an important aspect of the whole person development advocated by the CityU. Hence, students studying at CityU should not only develop their knowledge/expertise of chosen areas of study, but also enhance their personal development. This course aims to equip students with professional knowledge and skills to manage interpersonal interactions and for positive self-development. Students will learn and discover for themselves various ways of (1) effective communication both at school and at home; (2) stress and time management for school work as well as other types of school activities. Students will also do role-plays and group projects about the taught subjects.
